RuBiTube is a 14.4 mile triathlon that begins and ends at Watermelon Park and is completed in three legs. The biking segment begins the race and transfers into running which ends at a point south of the park where the participants pick up inner-tubes and paddle or float downriver to the finish line.

All proceeds from the race benefit the non-profit organization, Blue Ridge Wildlife Center. BRWC's mission is to ensure the preservation of native wildlife in areas where development has destroyed habitat and endangered wildlife. It is dedicated to wildlife rescue and conservation.

Some Things To Keep In Mind:

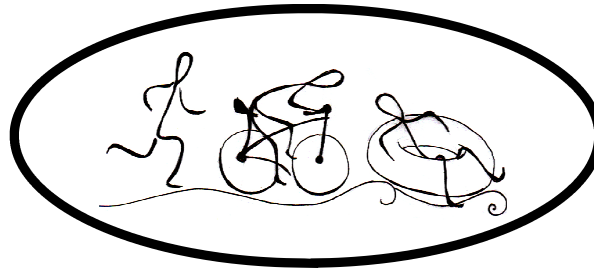

- No street bikes allowed on course—participants must provide their own bikes. Helmets REQUIRED
- Course is both gravel and pavement—signs and race volunteers will be posted at all areas of transition for your safety
- No dogs, strollers or headphones permitted
- Tubes provided by Watermelon Park—water shoes for the tubing portion of the race are REQUIRED
- Course is CHALLENGING—multiple hills throughout, please adequately prepare
- For a course map go to Watermelon Park's Facebook page and click on RuBiTube Info
- In case of inclement weather the race will be postponed to June 9, same time/same place—announcement regarding postponement can be found on Watermelon Park's Facebook page website no later than 6am race day
- Registration fee is non-refundable—keep in mind all funds collected are used to help the wildlife and habitats of our area
